2023 GRAND MARSHALL - JESSIE FRANICH

Cowboy UP or wear your PINK nylons! Jessie Kilburn Franich, "Your Fearless Leader" by those who've ridden in her Wet Blankets Horse 4-H club, was born (1941) and raised in Porterville, UT where she still resides. She married Matt Franich in 1971, and has four children. As many of you know, Jessie has had a lengthy career of being an avid horse and mule rider. Jessie still maintains a career of volunteerism and activism within the Morgan County community. Much of her time has been devoted to the children of this community through her 42 years of volunteer leadership in horse 4-H. To say she is competitive, would be an understatement. Her passion for winning is infectious. She truly cares about the future of our youth and it shows in the members of her 4-H group. This year will mark the 25th anniversary of the Fair's Wrangler Contest which she founded in 1998. Jessie's involvement in the community went beyond that of the Morgan County Fairgrounds.

She was an EMT and rode on the Morgan County Ambulance Crew for 15 years. She is currently the County DUP (Daughter's of Utah Pioneers) Captain and has also been the DUP Camp Captain. She is a proud member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and is currently the 2nd counselor in the Primary for the 6th Ward. After a couple of dump truck jobs, Jessie landed at Salt Lake County where she drove for 20 years, finally calling quits at age 75. Jessie still works around her house like she's in her 20's and all five feet of her still rides her 16 hand high mule, Amos, like a BOSS!!! Just because she's retired, doesn't mean she's slowed down at all. Jessie is thankful to all of you who have helped her along the way. Morgan County has been good to her and she is honored to add Grand Marshal to her long and rewarding legacy.
